Don't Stop here, Keep Building Your List To Build Your Business!

Step 7

Schedule Your Grand Opening!

You've just started an exciting new business. Now it's time to have your Grand Opening! For best results, schedule two or three home meetings in your first 10 Days. Your goal is to get as many people as possible to view a live presentation quickly. This will ensure you have enough prospects look at fuXion to develop a stable base of happy preferred customers and discover who else is interested in building a business like you are. By having two or three events to choose from, most everyone can find one they can attend.

Step 8

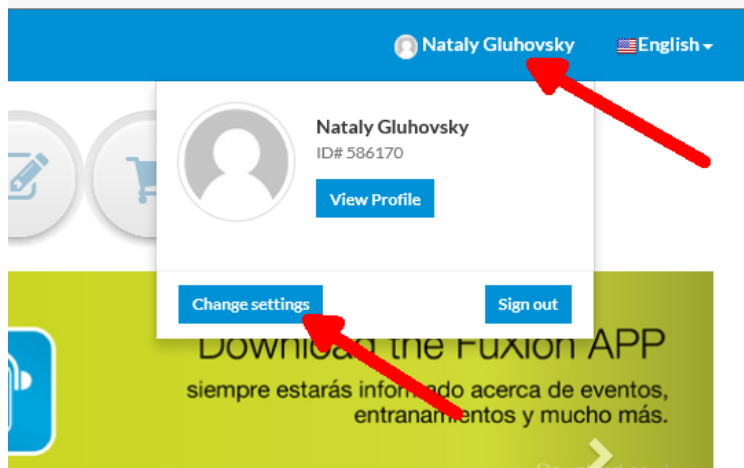

Set Up Your Personal Website

You have your own personal website to promote the fuXion products and opportunity. Customize it with your photo and contact information.

1. Login to your account on <http://soyfuXion.net>

2. Click on your account name and choose "Change Setting"

3. Scroll down and click on edit "Placement Preference" and choose "Balanced Build" so when people will join using your soyfuxin.net webpage, the system will place them left and right. After the first two enrollments, you may change it to. "Weak Leg" can be a good choice.

Step 9

Start Inviting!

You need a minimum of 10 to 20 Confirmed Guests. You may want to role-play and review the scripts with your sponsor before calling contacts.

Some Suggested Talking Points...

Do you have a couple minutes? Make sure they're not in the middle of something urgent. If they are, let them know you'll call back then get off the phone. If the time is good: What are you doing Tuesday night?

If they say they're out of town, working, or something they can't get out of, go to your second or third time and date possibility.

I am calling because... (why are they on your list? Give a sincere compliment. Respect in business, friendship, opinion, work ethic, attitude, etc.)

I'm helping to launch a new lifestyle and wellness company in the Americas named fuXion. I'm doing my grand opening at my home and I'd like to invite you as my guest. Or, I'm going to a grand opening and I'd like to bring you as my guest.

They may ask you what it is. Some possible responses:

It's my grand opening. I want to give you some product samples, show a short presentation and introduce my new business. Can you come?

It's my grand opening. I want to give you some product samples, show a short presentation and introduce my new business. If you love me, you'll be there!

It's the grand opening of my new business and I want everyone who is important to me, to be there to share it with me. I want to give you some product samples, show a short presentation and introduce my new business. If you love me, you'll be there!

That leads you to the response part of the process. You're looking for people that are looking. So it's not about begging or convincing. Now you go into a 'three strikes and you're out' mindset.

Someone who is definitely looking will say yes. If so, confirm the place and time and get off the phone. Make your next call while you're hot. However, most people will try and start an "interrogation" here. Don't let yourself be drawn into this. Let them know you can't do business on the phone and they have to see it and experience the samples to appreciate it.

Is this Network Marketing? Yes, but it's not like anything you've ever seen before! TRUST ME, you need to see this presentation. Can I count on you to make it?

What is the name of the company? The name of the company is fuXion. And it's not like anything you've ever seen before! TRUST ME, you need to see this presentation. Can I count on you to make it?

What is it exactly? Have you read Randy Gage's Risky Is the New Safe book? It was a New York Times bestseller and I'm on his team. It will make more sense when you see the presentation. Can you come?

If they say 'yes,' confirm the place and time and get off the phone. Make your next call while you're hot.

If they say no or ask more questions again, that's strike three. Rescind the offer and move on: Doesn't sound like you're looking right now, so let's forget it. Let me know if you change your mind.

Then get off the phone and on your next call. Don't beg, don't bargain or diminish the opportunity. If they're not looking, you're not looking for them. For some people, this takeaway is what actually gets them to say yes.

Do a live 3-way call with "A-List" contacts and your upline expert when possible ("A-List" refers to your Top 10 prospects. You want to approach the most ambitious, successful and busy people first). If they are busy, schedule for the next meeting or set up a 2-on-1 presentation with your sponsor. When is the soonest we can get together? You need to meet _____ and see this the same way I did. (Give them two time options. today or tomorrow.)

Step 10

Follow the Game Plan

On the home page of your back office, look for “My Next Rank” and click on the “View Rank Qualifications” to track your progress.

Here are the first 4 rank qualifications:

Ranks	EF Active (Min Personal Volume of you & your customers)	EF Qualified (Min active members in your lines)	Pay Leg Volume (The leg that has the lesser volume)	Total MLM Volume (Your lines volume left and right)	Pay Leg MLM Volume (Your Pay Leg lines volumes)	Your Lines Ranks (Ranks in your sponsorship lines)
Gold	60 PV	1 Left. 1 Right	1500 PV	1800 PV	150 PV	2 Executive
